MEDICARE
EXPLANATIONS OF NON-COVERED
CHIROPRACTIC SERVICES

DEDUCTIBLE

Medicare requires you to pay a yearly deductible of $203 at the start of the 2021 year.

WHAT MEDICARE WILL PAY FOR:

After you have met your deductible, Medicare will reimburse you for 80% of your “allowable treatment charges.” (The only “allowable treatment charge” for chiropractic is “manual manipulation of the spine.”)

WHAT MEDICARE WILL NOT PAY FOR:

1. Examination
2. X-Rays
3. Maintenance Care
4. More than one visit in one day
5. Physical Therapy
6. Supplements/Supports

During the course of your treatment, the doctor may determine that some of these services may be necessary to assist in the treatment of your condition. Medicare WILL NOT REIMBURSE you for any additional services; therefore the payment must be made by you.

EXAMINATIONS AND X-RAYS:

In order to determine the extent of your condition, as well as the type of treatment you need, the doctor will examine you prior to the initial treatment, X-Rays may also be necessary. Medicare WILL NOT REIMBURSE you for this examination or the x-rays, payment must be made by you.

I understand that although the chiropractic services listed above may be required for treatment of my condition, these charges are not covered by Medicare and I will be personally responsible for payments. of these charges.
